

Advert for Role of Reserve Independent Person for Standards

If you are interested in playing an important role in promoting and maintaining high standards of ethical conduct in the district of North Kesteven, you are invited to apply for the position of Reserve Independent Person. Support and training will be given, and a stipend of £600 per annum.

The Standards Committee oversees the ethical standards of elected and co-opted members of the District Council and parish/town councils and promote high standards of conduct

The Independent Person supports the Monitoring Officer and Standards Committee by providing an independent perspective on the Council's ethical framework as well as having an active role in the management and conduct of member complaints. The role of the Independent Person also includes involvement in disciplinary action against a Council's statutory officers (i.e. Head of Paid Service, Chief Finance Officer or Monitoring Officer). This will involve the appointment of a panel of at least two independent persons for the purpose of advising the Council on matters relating to the dismissal of these officers.

The application pack is available to download or to request that an application pack is posted, please email nk-monitoring@n-kesteven.gov.uk

If you want to speak to someone about the role, please call Marcella Heath on 01529 308291 in the first instance.

The closing date for receipt of applications is midnight on Sunday 15 August 2022.

Interviews for short-listed candidates will held in early September. The Council will formally appoint the successful candidate at a Full Council meeting.
