Overview

What is Community Infrastructure Levy (CIL)?

CIL is a mandatory charge for new development, and is used by local planning authorities in England and Wales to raise funds for a wide range of infrastructure needed to support housing and economic growth. It is governed by the Community Infrastructure Levy Regulations 2010.

When does CIL come into effect in NK?

The Council formally adopted its CIL charging schedule in July 2017. CIL will be payable on all chargeable developments that are granted planning permission on or after 22nd January 2018.

What are the CIL charging rates in NK?

The charging rates for NK are summarised in the table below:

NKDC CIL CHARGING RATES (£ per Sqm internal floorspace)

*All other uses’ and the £0 rate include comparison retail and retail warehousing.
The ‘Zones’ referred to in the above charging schedule are shown on the map below:
Why does NK have differential charging rates?

Differential rates (charging zones) are a way of dealing with variations in economic viability within the same local planning authority charging area. This makes CIL more flexible to local market conditions.

Calculating CIL

How is CIL calculated?

For all applications submitted or granted on or after 22nd January 2018, applicants will be required to submit an ‘Additional Information Requirements Form’, available at www.planningportal.co.uk/info/200126/applications/70/community_infrastructure_levy/5. The Council will calculate the correct CIL charge based on the information you provide in this form. CIL is calculated by multiplying the charging rate by the net internal floorspace (gross floorspace minus any existing floorspace). The actual amount payable will be subject to indexation to take account of inflation. Indexation is calculated using the ‘All-in Tender Price Index’, published by the Building Costs Information Service (BCIS) on behalf of the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors (RICS), and is adjusted annually each November.

CIL is not payable on development where the internal floorspace created is less than 100 Sqm.

How do I measure floorspace?

Gross internal floorspace should be measured in accordance with the RICS Code of Measuring Practice 6th Edition, available at www.rics.org/uk/knowledge/professional-guidance/professional-statements/rics-property-measurement-1st-edition/. Measurements should include all rooms, circulation, ancillary and service space such as lifts and corridors, and garages. Further guidance regarding measuring floorspace is available at www.planningportal.co.uk/info/200126/applications/70/community_infrastructure_levy/5.
Paying CIL

When is CIL payable?

Provided that you have completed the required CIL forms to accept liability and notified the Council before commencement of the development, you will be notified of the total amount payable, including any indexation, by way of a ‘Demand Notice’. Payment is required in accordance with the Council’s instalments policy, summarised below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>CIL CHARGEABLE PAYMENT PERIOD AND INSTALMENTS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Less than £50,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Between £50,000 and £300,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>More than £300,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Late payment of CIL may result in surcharges being added.
Exemptions and forms

Are any chargeable developments exempt from paying CIL?

Applicants can apply for exemptions from the levy, for the following types of development:

- Self-build dwellings (Regulation 54A – 54D)
- Residential annexes/extensions (Regulation 42A – 42C)
- Social housing that meets the criteria set out in Regulation 49/49A
- Development to be used wholly or mainly for charitable purposes (Regulation 43)

Please note that strict requirements apply to the timing of the exemption process. Applicants should refer to Government Planning Practice Guidance for more detailed information. In most cases an exemption can only be claimed if it is applied for prior to development commencing.
