

Application for a Voter Authority Certificate

For service voters and overseas voters

You can also apply online at voter-authority-certificate.service.gov.uk

Who can use this form?

The address at which you will receive your Voter Authority Certificate will depend on your personal circumstances. You can use this form to apply for a Voter Authority Certificate if you are registered to vote, or have applied to be registered, as:

- a member of the armed forces, or their spouse or civil partner
- a Crown servant or British Council employee, or their spouse or civil partner
- a British citizen living overseas

How do I apply?

- You must be eligible to vote, and registered, to get a Voter Authority Certificate. Contact your local electoral registration team in the UK, if you do not know if you are registered. If you are not registered, they can provide you with a paper voter registration form, or you can register online at gov.uk/register-to-vote.
- Fill in this application form. You will need to provide your address, a recent photo of you, and your National Insurance number. (You can still apply if you cannot provide a National Insurance number. You will need to provide supporting documents and it may take longer to process your application.)
- Return your completed application form to your local electoral registration team in the UK. You can find their address at electoralcommission.org.uk/voter. They must receive your form by 5pm, 6 working days before the election you wish to vote in.

Address

If you have filled out section 1A or 1B on page 2, your UK registration address is the address where you are (or have applied to be) registered to vote.

Your delivery address is your current address, correspondence address or British Forces Post Office Number.

Supporting documents

The documents in list B can be the same type. For example, you can provide four bank statements from different months.

Photo

You must supply a recent photo of your head and shoulders, with your face uncovered, as part of this application.

It's recommended to write your name, house number and postcode on the back of your photo.

Your photo must be:

- clear and in focus
- in colour
- against a plain, light-coloured background
- your true likeness, with no photoshop or filters
- at least 45 x 35 mm (height x width) in size, and no bigger than 297 x 210 mm (height x width)
- undamaged (e.g. not torn, creased, or marked)

In your photo you must:

- face forwards and look straight at the camera
- be alone, with no other objects or people
- have a plain expression
- have eyes open and visible, with no hair in front of them
- not wear sunglasses, but normal glasses are fine if you typically wear them
- not have a head covering (except for religious or medical reasons)
- not have 'red-eye', glare or shadows over your face

If you have ticked the box on page 4 to say you have a disability, the photo you supply:

- doesn't need to have a plain expression
- doesn't need to have your eyes open and visible
